Formation. At common law, the elements of a contract are offer, acceptance, intention to create legal relations, and consideration. Not all agreements are necessarily contractual, as the parties generally must be deemed to have an intention to be legally bound. A so-called gentlemen's agreement is one which is not intended to be legally enforceable, and which is "binding in honour only".

The two BEST things about the digital Registry Procedures Manual are that the manual will be updated two times a year instead of on an annual basis -- automatically and seamlessly -- and the digital manual format will allow you to keyword search for what you need! If you're half as excited about the new format of the Registry Manual as we are, there are a few things you should know:

Insurance is a complicated topic that is not well understood by insurance consumers. The underwriting cycle is used to explain why it is complicated, both from a contractual and a compliance perspective. The article cycles through the entire underwriting process, from when an applicant requests coverage to the renewal of a policy, as well as discussing adverse underwriting decisions.
